Exciting Opportunity For Parish Pastors

Our congregation in Southwest Florida is looking for guest pastors – all year long!

We recently purchased a brand new condominium unit in a gated community so we can provide FREE HOUSING for a period of 1-2 months per guest pastor. All we ask in return is that you lead us in worship one Sunday per month you are with us and that you share your creative energy for ministry among us for 15 hours a week.

The Purpose of this program is twofold:

1. To provide our church with a steady flow of gifted guest pastors to serve as worship leaders and ministry consultants
2. To provide clergy free housing as they pursue a sabbatical, take a vacation, do pre-retirement planning, visit relatives, work on a dissertation, or whatever...

We are currently accepting applications for guest pastors to serve 1-2 months, from October 1, 2009 and on. Guest pastor applications are approved as soon as possible.

Priority consideration will be given to candidates whose schedule works with openings on our Guest Pastor Calendar and whose pastoral experience and gifts can help us further develop our organization and our people for ministry in the 21st century. Current mission priorities include: Worship, Contemporary Worship, Leadership Development, Small Group Ministry, Community Outreach, Youth & Family, Senior Ministry, Preschool, Marketing and Strategic Planning,

The responsibility for all expenses (except housing) remains with the candidate. It is expected that “no money will change hands” between the candidate and the church.

For more information and an application, check out the website dedicated to this project, www.pastors2go.com. Inquiries and applications may be submitted to Kris Dines, Administrative Assistant, Living Waters Lutheran Church, North Port, FL 34290.
